

Rogers Stream Crossing, completed 8-18-05

Crossings provide a controlled area for livestock to cross the stream to both pastures. This stream crossing will be fenced on the downstream and upstream sections with a gate on creek bank left and right to prevent the cattle from lingering in the stream. Watering tanks were provided for the drinking source.

