Subject: Budget Amendment for Crisis Intervention Program additional funding

Brief Summary:

Health and Human Services is in receipt of additional direct services funding for the Crisis Intervention Program (CIP) in the amount of $26,955. The Crisis Intervention Program assists low-income persons with a heating or cooling related crisis. Households apply for the benefits at the local social services agencies or other contracted agencies. The County contracts with Eblen Charities to administer and disburse these funds. No additional county funding is required.
