WHAT IS PAID FAMILY LEAVE?

Paid family leave refers to compensated time away from work for specific and generally significant family caregiving needs, such as the arrival of a new child, adoption or serious illness of a close family member.

NORTH CAROLINA OFFICE OF STATE PERSONNEL

Effective September 1, 2019, the Office of State Personnel approved Paid Parental Leave to enable Eligible State Employees to care for and bond with a newborn or child under the age of eighteen (18) newly-placed for adoption, foster, or other legal placement.

8 Weeks of Paid leave for birth of a child

4 Weeks of paid leave to care for and bond with a newborn or newly adopted or placed child.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

(December 2019)

The Federal Employee Paid Leave Act provides 12 weeks of paid time off for the birth, adoption or foster placement of a new child; to care for a spouse, child or parent; for particular military caregiving and leave purposes; and for personal health reasons to federal workers who are eligible for unpaid leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). The Act would not provide employees with additional leave time; it would simply allow federal employees to receive pay during their 12 weeks of FMLA leave.

CONSIDERATIONS

- Intermittent Leave vs. Continuous Leave
- 6-weeks vs. One Event
- Revise vacation policy to state the employee would not be eligible to receive a payout or sell off vacation hours for 12 months, if paid family leave was used in the prior 12 months.
- Effective Date: July 1, 2020

CONCLUSION

Having a paid family leave policy reinforces an organization's commitment to a family-friendly organization and allows more work/life balance. Resulting in improved employee morale in the workplace.

Providing Paid Family Medical leave would reduce turnover costs and help recruit and retain a talented work force.

A large and growing body of research – and the experiences of millions of workers and businesses – show that policies that enable workers to care for themselves and their families without risking their jobs or economic security are good for workers, families, businesses and our economy.
