January 25, 2021

Date Advertised

The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Department of Public Safety, Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice, Community Programs section in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2021-2022 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2021. The use of these funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Priority 1: Restitution/Community Service	Priority 2: Sex Offender Treatment	Priority 3: Teen Court	Priority 4: Vocational Skills	Priority 5: Interpersonal Skills	Priority 6: Runaway Shelter	Priority 7: Structured Day	Priority 8: Mentoring	Priority 9: Tutoring	Priority 10: Experiential Skills
---	------------------------------------	------------------------	-------------------------------	----------------------------------	-----------------------------	----------------------------	-----------------------	----------------------	----------------------------------

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

Most Serious Prior Adjudication (prior class 1-3 misdemeanors) (prior class f-1 or a-1 misdemeanors); Prior Assaults (without a weapon); Known Use - Alcohol, Illegal Drugs (prior 12 months); School Behavioral Problems (prior 12 months); Relationship with Peers (Lacks prosocial peers or sometimes association with delinquent peers.) Parental Supervision

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain:	Peer Relationships
Individual Domain:	Alcohol and Illegal Drug Use
Family Domain:	Parental Supervision
	School Behavior
School Domain:	School Behavior/Adjustment
	See the Summary of Risk and Needs for more detail

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.

Investing in our Community: More than $600K in Grant Funding Opportunities for Juvenile Crime Prevention Programs Available Now

The Buncombe County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) is now accepting proposals for fiscal year 2021-2022. The JCPC announces the availability of small grants totaling more than $600,000 in state funding for local nonprofits and public agencies working to serve delinquent and at-risk youth in our community.

Apply now

The JCPC (<https://www.buncombecounty.org/governing/depts/justice-services/councils-advisory-groups/juvenile-crime-prevention-council.aspx>) is seeking innovative projects designed to address the following factors in our community:

- School Behavior/Adjustment:
 - In Buncombe County there has been a decrease in serious school behavior problems from 54% in 2018-2019 to 50% in 2019-2020. However, that is still an increase from 41% in 2016-2017 and 48% in 2017-2018. Buncombe County is also higher than the state rate of 45% in 2019-2020.
- Substance Abuse Within Past 12 Months:
 - In Buncombe County, there has been an 8% increase from 26% in 2018-2019 to 34% in 2019-2020.
- Abuse/Neglect History:
 - In Buncombe County there was a slight increase in victim with support from 22% in 2018-2019 to 23% in 2019-2020.
- Mental Health Needs:
 - In Buncombe County, the percentage of no mental health care needs indicated increased from 17% in 2018-2019 to 24% in 2019-2020. Mental health care needs addressed increased from 48% in 2018-2019 to 50% in 2019-2020.

Application Information

Interested organizations are required to complete an online application through NC ALLIES \(https://www.ncdps.gov/Juvenile-Justice/Community-Programs/Juvenile-Crime-Prevention-Councils/Program-Agreement-Information\). (A Local Link to Improve Effective Services). Organizations can review application instructions here \(https://www.ncdps.gov/document/nc-allies-local-program-application-agreement-process\). Once the application is submitted electronically, send a copy via email to Aisha.Shepherd@buncombecounty.org (<mailto:Aisha.Shepherd@buncombecounty.org>) and submit 18 hard copies to:

- Aisha Shepherd
- 200 College St., Suite 300
- Asheville, NC 28801
- Drop box is available at 200 College St., 1st Floor

Private nonprofits are also required to submit in NC ALLIES, No Overdue Tax forms, Conflict of Interest Statements, and, if requested, proof of 501(c)(3) status.

The Allocations Committee of the Buncombe County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) is responsible for reviewing and allocating funds to programs designed to serve delinquent and at risk youth and reduce the number of youth who enter the state's youth development centers. Any nonprofits or public agency interested in applying for JCPC funds is required to send a representative to the applicant orientation. Below are the important dates.

Important dates for the grant application process:

- Applicant orientation on Monday, Feb. 15, 9:45 a.m.-noon. This a mandatory orientation for new applicants (prior applicants may also attend). Due to COVID-19 precautions the meeting will take place via Zoom. Applicants will receive an email link.
- Application submission deadline is Tuesday, March 16, 2021 by 5 p.m. All applications must be submitted in NC Allies and 18 hard copies submitted to Aisha Shepherd at 200 College Street Asheville, 28801 on the 1st floor.
- The allocations hearing date will be Wednesday, April 28, 2021, beginning at 8:30 a.m. This meeting will take place via Zoom. All applicants will receive an email link.

Please see the attached Request for Proposals and visit Buncombecounty.org/grants (<https://www.buncombecounty.org/governing/community-investment/grants/default.aspx?redirect=grants>) for more information.

Buncombe County is committed to building a healthy, safe, well-educated, and thriving community that is equitable and sustainable. Buncombe County invests in our community through eight grant programs supporting organizations working in support of the Buncombe 2025 Strategic Plan (<https://www.buncombecounty.org/governing/commissioners/strategic-plan.aspx>) focus areas and goals. Equity, diversity, and inclusion are critical to our grants processes, and Buncombe County encourages participation from organizations led by and providing service to people of color/BIPOC individuals.

More about the Buncombe County Juvenile Crime Prevention Program

The North Carolina Department of Public Safety's Division of Juvenile Justice partners with Juvenile Crime Prevention Councils in each county to galvanize community leaders, locally and statewide, to reduce and prevent juvenile crime. The intent is to provide community-based alternatives to youth development centers and to provide community-based delinquency, substance abuse, and gang prevention strategies and programs.

This is an initiative of the NC Department of Public Safety, Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice, Juvenile Community Programming, and the Buncombe County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council.
