

An Ordinance Amending the Enforcement Provisions of Certain County Ordinances to Comply with Session Law 2021-138

WHEREAS, on August 25, 2021, the North Carolina General Assembly enacted Session Law 2021-138, which prohibited criminal penalties for certain local ordinance violations, removed the legal presumption that local ordinance violations constituted misdemeanor offenses and required local governments to specify which violations of its ordinances constitute misdemeanor offenses, and provided new defenses for persons charged with criminal violations of local ordinances; and

WHEREAS, the County Legal Department and has worked with the County officials who administer the County's Code of Ordinances to draft the amendments contained herein, which are intended to ensure that the County's Code of Ordinances conforms with Session Law 2021-138 and to provide the County with the means to enforce the provisions of the same; and

WHEREAS, this Board has determined that it is in the best interest of the citizens and residents of Buncombe County to enact the following revisions to the County Code of Ordinances.

NOW THEREFORE, be it ordained by the buncombe county board of commissioners that:

1 Section 1-7 (General Provisions; General penalty) of the Buncombe County Code of Ordinances is amended as follows:

Sec. 1-7. General penalty.

- (a) Any person violating or failing, refusing or neglecting to comply with any provision or requirement of any section or subsection of this Code, or any ordinance of this county now in force or hereafter enacted, to which no specific penalty is affixed, shall be punished by a ~~$500.00, or shall be imprisoned for not more than 30 days,~~ $50.00 civil penalty fine for each offense.
- (b) Any ordinance in this Code may be enforced by an appropriate legal remedy issuing from a court of competent jurisdiction. It shall not be a defense to the application of the county for equitable relief that there is an adequate remedy at law.
- (c) Each day that any breach or violation of or any failure to comply with any provision or requirement of any section or subsection of this Code or any ordinance of this county now in force or hereafter enacted continues, or is allowed to continue, shall constitute a separate and distinct offense; but nothing contained in this section or this Code shall be construed to relieve, or shall have the effect of relieving, any offender of any fine, imprisonment or penalty for repeated violations on any one day of any ordinance now in force or hereafter enacted, or any section or subsection of this Code.

- (d) The imposition of a penalty under the provisions of this Code shall not prevent the revocation or suspension of any license, franchise or permit issued or granted under this Code.
- (e) If any violation of this Code is designated as a nuisance under the provisions of this Code, such nuisance may be summarily abated by the county in addition to the imposition of a ~~fine or imprisonment~~ civil penalty.
- (f) Any provision of this Code or other ordinance of the county may be enforced by any one or more of the remedies authorized by G.S. 153A-123.

State law reference(s)—Violations of county ordinances deemed misdemeanors, G.S. 14-4, 153A-123; prescribing alternate methods for enforcement of ordinances and authorizing the making of each day's continuing violation a separate offense; injunction, G.S. 1-485 et seq.

2 Section 6-42 (Animals; Inspection, Interference, or Concealment) of the Buncombe County Code of Ordinances is amended as follows:

- (a) Inspections. Whenever it is necessary to make an inspection to enforce any of the provisions of this article, or whenever the officer has reasonable cause to believe that there exists in any household or upon any premises any violation of this article, the officer is hereby empowered to enter and inspect such property at any reasonable time and perform any duty imposed upon him by this article as follows:
 - (1) If such property is unoccupied, the officer shall first make a reasonable effort to locate the owner or other persons having control of the property; and
 - (2) If such property is occupied, the officer shall first present proper credentials to the occupant and request entry, explaining the reasons therefore; and
 - (3) If such entry is refused or cannot be obtained because the owner or other person having control or charge of the property cannot be located after due diligence, the officer may seek an appropriate warrant issued and served as provided by law.

29 Section 78-30 (Zoning; Watershed Protection) of the Buncombe County Code of Ordinances be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following provision:

Any person violating any provisions of this article shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $500.00 or a maximum 30 days imprisonment as provided in G.S. § 14-4. Each day that the violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

30 Section 78-65 (Zoning; Penalties for Transferring Lots in Unapproved Subdivisions) of the Buncombe County Code of Ordinances is amended as follows:

Any person who, being the owner or agent of the owner of any land located within the jurisdiction of the county, thereafter subdivides his land in violation of this article or transfers or sells land by reference to, exhibition of, or any other use of a plat showing a subdivision of the land before the plat has been properly approved under this article and recorded in the office of the register of deeds, shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of $500.00~~guilty of a misdemeanor~~. The description by metes and bounds in the instrument of transfer or other document used in the process of selling or transferring land shall not exempt the transaction from this penalty. The County of Buncombe may bring an action for injunction of any illegal subdivision, transfer, conveyance, or sale of land, and the court shall, upon appropriate findings, issue an injunction and order requiring the offending party to comply with this article.

31 If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this ordinance is, for any reason, held to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The Board of Commissioners hereby declare that it would have passed this ordinance, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that anyone or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared invalid.

32 All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

33 This ordinance is effective upon adoption.

Read, approved and adopted this 3rd day of May, 2022.
