

Isaac Coleman Community Innovation Grants Application Summary Sheet

APPLICANT	SHILOH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
Main Contact Name	Norma Baynes
Main Contact Email	norma11@charter.net

PROJECT	E.W. Pearson Project
Place	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Partners have established meeting spaces within communities, Shiloh Community Association utilizes the Linwood Crum Shiloh Recreation Complex on Shiloh road</li> </ul>
Shared Aspiration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Goals: Communication with City and County; Development and affordable housing; Greenspaces and maintenance of the neighborhood culture; Economic development and business development</li> </ul>
Partners	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Neighborhoods: Shiloh, Burton Street, East End</li> <li>Project Lighten Up: summer youth programming</li> <li>Shiloh Community Association: fiscal agent, project management</li> </ul>
Approach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Coordination between multiple neighborhoods, each with specific projects and neighborhood plans</li> <li>Activities include newsletters, websites, forums, sidewalk stations, green spaces and gardens, tailgate markets, neighborhood beautification, student stipends and savings, home based businesses, youth credit union, recording studio, economic education, etc.</li> </ul>
Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Improved neighborhood infrastructure, reduced crime rate</li> </ul>
Support	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Requests organization coaching – individually and collaboratively</li> </ul>
Other	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>“The outcomes of the cross cultural pollination will result in a united front that will serve as a way to support and rebuild the connectivity of community. The communities that are applying in partnership have leveraged social and historic capital to do great things as individuals. This is an opportunity to invest in a collective that will lift the collaborative for generations to come.”</li> </ul>