Organization Description*

Tell us about your organization. What is your mission? Highlight two or three key facts and accomplishments that best define your organization.

The mission of One Youth at a Time is to work with at-risk and delinquent youth, providing them with programs developed to increase academic success, self discipline and self esteem. We provide mentoring, tutoring and outreach to students in need - especially those who have demonstrated a lack of enthusiasm for education, citizenship, good health practices. We have served the youth of Buncombe County for 25 years. We have seen good results from those students that stay with us for a year or more, 98% go on to the next grade level or graduate from high school. Our graduates have good success with going on to college, technical education or military.

Project Description

What do you propose to do? What is your plan? What are your goals?

This project will provide mentoring, tutoring and outreach to students. It is a continuation of a service offered by One Youth at a Time since its formation 25 years ago. We will continue to serve a similar demographic and track and report outcomes for the youth and the community we serve.

Key Steps*

How will the project work? What are specific activities and milestones that your project entails?

One Youth at a Time will provide trained volunteer mentors and tutors from throughout the community who can serve as positive role models to struggling youth. These mentors and tutors will help support the educational needs and goals of children in elementary, middle and high schools to ensure their continued advancement to the next grade level and earning a high school diploma. We will provide one-on-one tutoring as well as homework help sessions to strengthen fundamental reading, math, science and English skills. As needed, we help prepare young people who have previously dropped out prepare for and take the GED high school equivalency test.

Area Served*

Which areas of the County will be served by this project? Which Commissioner District(s) will be served?

A Buncombe County Commissioner district map is available at THIS LINK.

Serves youth from all districts with an emphasis on Commissioner Districts 1 & 3. We work with Asheville City Schools (Hall Fletcher, Vance, Asheville Middle & High Schools) as well as Buncombe County Schools (Oakley, Erwin, Roberson).

People Served*

Who are the members of our community this project will serve? How many people will be served? Include demographics, including age, area median income, race, neighborhood and/or school.

One Youth at a Time will serve students in grades K-12 from low-income families, served by the free and reduced lunch program as well as public benefits such as Medicaid and public housing. The majority of the students are African American, and we have had an increase in the number of Hispanic students as a result of our growth in the Erwin district. We serve 12 to 18 students with weekly tutoring and mentoring services as well as an 100-125 students with outreach and education services at least monthly.

Partners*

Which other organizations are you working with to reach your goals? What other local organizations provide similar services or serve similar beneficiaries, and how do you work together?

We are working with the Baptist Ministers Union, which consists of churches in the area who provide volunteer tutors and mentors. We partner regularly with Project Lighten Up, Gateway Group of Asheville and Mt. Zion Community Development which are all nonprofits with strong ties to black and white, interdenominational churches. We partner with Helpmate on topics related to intimate partner violence and dating abuse.

Personnel*

Who is responsible for the project? Briefly describe project leaders and the role each will play in the project. How do these leaders reflect the population or community that you serve?

Rev. Robbie Williams serves as executive director, and Rev. LC Ray serves as CEO for One Youth at a Time. Both are Asheville natives and been with the organization since its inception.

Success*

How will you measure results? What will success look like? How will you document the impact of your project? Include whether there is a model that serves as basis for project design.

We track the number of students that we serve with mentoring, tutoring and outreach education. A key measure of success is the number of students that move onto the next grade level or graduate from high school at the end of the school year. During year, we look at success in a variety of ways including student attitudes, respect for themselves and others, and overall life outlook. We also look at report cards and academic goals, but we also place a lot of emphasis on attitude since we see that a healthy life outlook is connected to future success as a citizen.

Funding*

What is your plan for finding the balance of the project budget? What is your funding timeline and what are your other sources of support?

One Youth at a Time has received strong support from both the City and the County, and we do quite a bit of fundraising through our church networks in order to meet the financial needs beyond public funding. The Community Foundation has also been a good supporter of the agency.

Sustainability*

How will this project be maintained? Please describe funding sources and how you plan to sustain the project in future years.

One Youth at a Time has a track record of ongoing funding from public sources as well as grants, the faith community and private donors.
