Welcome of Visitors

- Member Watson made a motion to move into executive session. Secretary Newman seconded and the Board approved unanimously.
- The Board entered into executive session at 1:05 pm.
- The Board resumed open session at 1:41 pm.

Item Two – Proposed Primary for the City of Asheville

- "The Board did not take any action in closed session.
- Section 6(a) of the City of Asheville's Charter currently calls for the election of at-large council members using the nonpartisan primary method of election, with the primaries and election to be held using the schedule applicable to election of County officers. The Board of Elections will implement the Charter as written unless and until it is modified.
- This concludes this agenda item."

Item Three – Early Voting Site for Possible Second Primary

- Interim Director Kanavel proposed to use 50 Coxe Avenue as the in lieu of 77 McDowell St site should a second primary occur.

- Member Watson motioned that 50 Coxe Avenue be used for early voting purposes in the case of a second primary. Member Duncan seconded and the Board approved unanimously.
- Member Duncan motioned to adjourn. Member Watson seconded and the Board approved unanimously.

The meeting adjourned at 2:03 pm. The next meeting is to be determined.
