

Isaac Coleman Grants Review Team FY2021

Buncombe County

Question Group

Named for social justice champion Isaac Coleman, the Isaac Coleman Economic Community Investment Grant calls for targeted investments in our communities that are currently working to champion equitable opportunity and eliminate racial disparities in Buncombe County. Robust community engagement and commitment to community-driven initiatives are essential in improving and increasing economic and educational opportunities. Our goal with this investment is to rebuild the health, safety, and well-being of our communities.

The Isaac Coleman Review Team will analyze and select Isaac Coleman grantees, provide additional support and review throughout the 3-year grant period via quarterly meetings facilitated by Buncombe County's Community Engagement Team. Review Team members must have a connection to Buncombe County and will be selected based on meeting criteria and responses from submitted application.

Criteria to be a member of the Isaac Coleman Review Team

- Able to analyze grant applications effectively with Prevention Institute THRIVE model's criteria to support "Ensuring Positive Places," "Connecting People," and /or "Improving Equitable Opportunity."
- Have a vested interest in contributing to the advancement of equitable opportunity and eliminating racial disparities in Buncombe County.
- Able to express comments and knowledge of each application clearly.
- Able to listen attentively to the input of other reviewers, engage in discussion and acknowledge differences.
- Ethically review all applications and maintain confidentiality.
- Disclose any conflicts of interest. Conflicts of interest include close professional or personal relationships with grant applicants.
