Growing Cyber Security Attacks on Local Gov

Targeted ransomware attacks on local US government entities costing local governments, police stations millions as seen

Increasing Loss of Farmland

North Carolina leads the nation in the rate of farmland lost to development and Buncombe County figures show the same trend. Between 1997 and 2017, the county lost 193 farms and 22,784 acres of farmland or fall to a total of 1,073 farms that cover a total of 72,284 acres.

As development continues, and with natural and regulatory restrictions, the pressure to develop prime farmland soil increases agricultural sector contributes both directly to the economy and indirectly by offering jobs along the tourism industry.

Growing Jail Population

Between 2015 and 2018, the number of people awaiting case disposition in the Buncombe County jail increased by 19%, from 309 to 362. Driving this increase is the growing length of time spent experienced by pre-trial defendants. Additionally, staff projections suggest the female population will regularly exceed capacity by November 2020.

Educated & Capable Community	Environmental Stewardship	Vibrant Economy	Resident Well-Being
Growing Racial Gaps in Educational Achievement Buncombe County Schools report growing achievement gaps between various subgroups of students (Hispanic compared to White, Economically Disadvantaged compared to Non-Economically Disadvantaged, etc.). For example, between 2014 and 2018, the achievement gap among black and white students grew from 31% to 33%. In comparison, the minority achievement gap grew even more dramatically across Asheville City Schools – from 52% to 62%. This gap is second highest among North Carolina school districts and fifth highest in the country. Source: “Two NC school districts with major racial achievement gaps seek solutions,” Carolina Public Press, Feb 21 2019; North Carolina Department of Public Instruction, July 2019	Increasing Loss of Farmland North Carolina leads the nation in the rate of farmland lost to development, and Buncombe County figures show the same trend. Between 1997 and 2017, the county lost 193 farms and 22,784 acres of farmland operated, fall to a total of 1,073 farms that cover a total of 72,284 acres. As development continues, and with natural and regulatory restrictions on steep slopes, the pressure to develop prime farmland soil increases. The agricultural sector contributes both directly to the county economy as well as income for several other sectors including the tourism industry. Source: US Department of Agriculture, National Agricultural Statistics Service, 2017; communications wif Buncombe County, Jul 22 2019	Affordable Quality Child Care Options Falling Short Programs that help children learn and grow in their earliest years can change the trajectories of their lives, especially for children in disadvantaged families. Yet in Buncombe County, gaps in access to affordable high-quality child care are expected to persist due to limited availability. Currently, less than 10% of children birth through five in Buncombe County are enrolled in licensed programs (4,067 out of 14,319). In NC, the average annual cost of center-based care for an infant is $9,254, $8,386 for a toddler, and $7,920 for a four-year-old. Sources: Children in licensed care, NC Dept of Child Development and Early Education, Sept 2018; Total child population, NC Office of Management and Budget, 2018; “US and the High Cost of Child Care Appendix,” Child Care Aware of America, 2018	Growing Jail Population Between 2015 and 2018, the number of people awaiting case disposition in the detention facility has increased by 19%, from 309 to 362. Driving this increase is the growing length of stay experienced by pre-trial defendants. Approximately 70% of the jail population is state pre-trial defendants. Additionally, staff projections suggest the female population will regularly exceed capacity by November 2020. Sources: Staff presentation to Board of Commissioners, Oct 10 2017; staff presentation to Justice Resource Advisory Council, Jul 5 2019
