HELP MAKE ASHEVILLE A SAFER COMMUNITY!

Celebrate National Night Out in your Neighborhood

AMERICA'S NIGHT OUT AGAINST CRIME!

On Tuesday, August 5, 2014 join with neighborhoods all over Asheville, Buncombe County and the Nation to strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships; and send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

5:30 to 7:30 p.m. you can bring your families and neighbors to participate in the National Night Out Kick-off event at Carrier Park. Then head back home to take back your neighborhood with events and activities such as:

- block parties
- cookouts
- parades
- flashlight walks
- visits from local police and sheriff departments
- games for youth
- food drives

For more information on the Kick-off Event and ways to plan a National Night Out event or activity for your neighborhood, contact: Keith McCulloch, Asheville Police Department Crime Prevention Officer at kmcculloch@ashevillenc.gov or 259-5834 -OR- Natalie Bailey at Natalie.Bailey@buncombecounty.org or 250-4469.
